

Fundamentals of International Diplomacy

History And Social Studies · Answer Key · 8 Questions

1. What is the primary role of an ambassador?

- A) To act as the chief representative of one country to another
- B) To act as a military commander in foreign territory
- C) To draft national legislation for foreign countries
- D) To manage international trade tariffs exclusively

2. Which international document outlines the rules for diplomatic immunity and the protection of embassies?

- A) The Treaty of Versailles
- B) The Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations
- C) The Geneva Protocol
- D) The Kyoto Agreement

3. What is the term for a formal agreement between two or more sovereign states?

- A) A treaty
- B) A lobby
- C) An ultimatum
- D) A sanction

4. Which international organization serves as the primary forum for multilateral diplomacy and conflict resolution?

- A) The World Bank
- B) The G7
- C) The United Nations
- D) The International Red Cross

5. What is a 'consulate' primarily responsible for in a foreign country?

- A) Overseeing military maneuvers
- B) Providing services to its citizens, such as passport renewals
- C) Formulating foreign military policy
- D) Regulating the foreign country's domestic elections

6. What is 'bilateral diplomacy'?

- A) Diplomacy involving three or more nations
- B) Diplomacy between two nations
- C) Diplomacy conducted entirely through non-governmental organizations
- D) Diplomacy regarding only maritime borders

7. What is the primary purpose of a 'summit' in diplomatic terms?

- A) To declare war
- B) A meeting of heads of state or government to discuss high-level issues
- C) To impose economic sanctions on a rival
- D) To elect a new leader for a neighboring country

8. What is 'persona non grata' in the context of diplomacy?

- A) A type of diplomatic gift
- B) A formal state dinner
- C) A person who is unwelcome or unacceptable to the host government
- D) A secret diplomatic document