

World Geography & Basic Geometry

Basic Geometry · Practice Test · 8 Questions

1. Which continent is roughly shaped like a boot?

- A) Africa
- B) South America
- C) Europe
- D) Asia

2. The equator is an imaginary line that divides the Earth into which two hemispheres?

- A) Eastern and Western
- B) Northern and Southern
- C) Polar and Equatorial
- D) Tropical and Temperate

3. The Prime Meridian, a key line of longitude, passes through which European city?

- A) Paris
- B) Berlin
- C) London
- D) Madrid

4. Which of the following countries has a coastline shaped like a long, thin strip, resembling a line segment?

- A) Canada
- B) Chile
- C) Russia
- D) Brazil

5. What geometric shape best describes the overall outline of Australia when viewed on a map?

- A) Circle
- B) Square
- C) Irregular polygon
- D) Triangle

6. The Arctic Circle is a line of latitude located approximately how many degrees north of the Equator?

- A) 0 degrees
- B) 23.5 degrees
- C) 66.5 degrees
- D) 90 degrees

7. Which large island nation in Southeast Asia has an archipelago of many islands, resembling a collection of scattered points?

- A) Japan
- B) Indonesia
- C) Philippines
- D) Madagascar

8. The shape of the Dead Sea, bordered by Israel and Jordan, is most like which basic geometric shape?

- A) Oval
- B) Rectangle
- C) Triangle
- D) Circle