

Spy Secrets for Kids

Intelligence & Espionage · Answer Key · 25 Questions

1. What is the main job of a spy?

- A) To play games with friends
- B) To collect secret information
- C) To build tall towers
- D) To teach in schools

2. What is a common tool spies might use to see far away?

- A) A rubber duck
- B) A telescope
- C) A fluffy pillow
- D) A bouncy ball

3. Where did the famous spy James Bond work?

- A) MI5
- B) MI6
- C) CIA
- D) FBI

4. What does 'espionage' mean?

- A) Singing loudly
- B) Secretly getting information
- C) Dancing happily
- D) Eating yummy food

5. What is a code that spies might use to hide messages?

- A) A secret language or numbers
- B) A song with no words
- C) A drawing of a cat
- D) A very long story

6. What is the name of the intelligence agency for the United States?

- A) MI6
- B) CSIS
- C) CIA
- D) ASIS

7. Why do countries have spies?

- A) To make more toys
- B) To stay safe and know what's happening
- C) To have fun parties
- D) To learn how to cook

8. What is a disguise?

- A) A type of soup
- B) Changing your appearance so people don't recognize you
- C) A type of hat
- D) A funny dance

9. Who are often hired to be spies?

- A) Only clowns
- B) People who are clever and observant
- C) People who love to sleep
- D) People who wear silly hats

10. What is a 'secret agent' also known as?

- A) A baker
- B) A spy
- C) A teacher
- D) A doctor

11. What kind of information might spies be interested in?

- A) Recipes for cookies
- B) Plans for new buildings or technology
- C) Stories about dragons
- D) How to tie shoelaces

12. What is a famous spy movie character known for his gadgets?

- A) Mickey Mouse
- B) James Bond
- C) SpongeBob SquarePants
- D) Peppa Pig

13. What does a spy often have to be good at?

- A) Falling asleep
- B) Being quiet and unnoticed
- C) Shouting loudly
- D) Playing tag

14. What is the British intelligence agency called?

- A) FBI
- B) CIA
- C) MI6
- D) KGB

15. What is a listening device spies might use?

- A) A loud drum
- B) A microphone
- C) A squeaky toy
- D) A whistle

16. What is a person who uses spies called?

- A) A gardener
- B) A spymaster
- C) A chef
- D) A mail carrier

17. What kind of messages might spies try to send secretly?

- A) Happy birthday cards
- B) Important messages about national security
- C) Invitations to a party
- D) Grocery lists

18. What is a 'bug' in espionage?

- A) A small insect
- B) A hidden listening device
- C) A type of candy
- D) A messy room

19. What does the CIA stand for?

- A) Central Investigation Agency
- B) Central Intelligence Agency
- C) Creative Idea Agency
- D) Country Information Agency

20. What is a way spies might communicate without talking?

- A) Singing a song
- B) Using secret signals or written notes
- C) Playing a video game
- D) Blowing bubbles

21. What is a 'dead drop' in spy work?

- A) A type of flower
- B) A secret place to leave or pick up items unseen
- C) A way to catch fish
- D) A place to play hide-and-seek

22. What is a spy who works for their own country called?

- A) A foreign agent
- B) A domestic agent
- C) A double agent
- D) A secret shopper

23. What kind of equipment might help a spy take pictures from far away?

- A) A magnifying glass
- B) A camera with a zoom lens
- C) A crayon
- D) A watering can

24. What does a spy often need to be good at to avoid getting caught?

- A) Making loud noises
- B) Being sneaky and hiding well
- C) Always being in plain sight
- D) Talking to everyone

25. What is a 'mole' in spy talk?

- A) A small animal that digs tunnels
- B) A spy secretly working within an organization
- C) A type of bird
- D) A garden tool