

Understanding How Children Grow and Learn

Developmental Psychology · Answer Key · 8 Questions

1. What is the term for when a baby learns to walk on their own?

- A) Crawling
- B) Walking
- C) Rolling over
- D) Sitting up

2. When children start to play with others and share toys, what are they learning?

- A) To be alone
- B) Social skills
- C) How to read
- D) To count

3. What helps a child's brain grow and learn new things?

- A) Eating only sweets
- B) Playing and exploring
- C) Watching TV all day
- D) Sleeping all the time

4. When a child can put on their own jacket, what kind of skill are they practicing?

- A) Eating skills
- B) Language skills
- C) Fine motor skills
- D) Gross motor skills

5. What is it called when a child understands that even if they can't see a toy, it still exists?

- A) Object permanence
- B) Imagination
- C) Memory
- D) Senses

6. Why is it important for children to listen to stories and talk with grown-ups?

- A) To learn new words and understand the world
- B) To play games
- C) To practice drawing
- D) To sing songs

7. When a child recognizes their family members, what sense are they using a lot?

- A) Smell
- B) Taste
- C) Sight
- D) Hearing

8. What is one of the first ways babies communicate their needs, like being hungry or tired?

- A) Drawing pictures
- B) Singing songs
- C) Crying
- D) Clapping