

Animal Habitats Quiz

Biology · Answer Key · 10 Questions

1. Which habitat is characterized by extremely cold temperatures, icy ground, and very little tree growth?

- A) Desert
- B) Arctic Tundra
- C) Tropical Rainforest
- D) Savanna

2. Where would you typically find a camel living naturally in the wild?

- A) Ocean
- B) Desert
- C) Deciduous Forest
- D) Wetland

3. What type of habitat is a coral reef?

- A) Freshwater
- B) Marine
- C) Terrestrial
- D) Subterranean

4. Which animal is specially adapted to live high in a tropical rainforest canopy?

- A) Polar Bear
- B) Toucan
- C) Emperor Penguin
- D) Fennec Fox

5. What is a freshwater habitat where water flows continuously in one direction?

- A) Lake
- B) Ocean
- C) River
- D) Pond

6. Which habitat is known for having four distinct seasons and trees that lose their leaves in autumn?

- A) Temperate Deciduous Forest
- B) Desert
- C) Taiga
- D) Grassland

7. Where do Emperor Penguins build their breeding colonies?

- A) Sahara Desert
- B) Amazon Rainforest
- C) Antarctica
- D) Great Barrier Reef

8. Which of these animals lives in a grassland or savanna habitat?

- A) Lion
- B) Walrus
- C) Clownfish
- D) Axolotl

9. What is a wetland habitat dominated by woody trees and flooded soil?

- A) Desert
- B) Swamp
- C) Glacier
- D) Prairie

10. Which habitat covers more than 70% of the Earth's surface?

- A) Rainforest
- B) Ocean
- C) Desert
- D) Tundra