

Theories on the Peopling of the Philippines

History & Anthropology · Answer Key · 2 Questions

1. What do internal development theories emphasize regarding the population of the Philippine archipelago?

A) Local evolution of indigenous populations

- B) Massive external waves of invasion
- C) Complete replacement by European settlers
- D) Population movement solely across dried land bridges

2. Who proposed the Core Population Theory regarding the peopling of the Philippines in 1967?

A) Peter Bellwood

B) Felipe Landa Jocano

- C) Wilhelm G. Solheim II
- D) Isidore Dyen