

Comic Book History Trivia

Comic Book History · Practice Test · 8 Questions

1. Which character first appeared in Action Comics #1 in 1938, marking the beginning of the Golden Age of comics?

- A) Batman
- B) Superman
- C) Wonder Woman
- D) Captain America

2. What is the name of the publishing company that was originally known as Timely Comics before it became famous for characters like Spider-Man?

- A) DC Comics
- B) Image Comics
- C) Marvel Comics
- D) Dark Horse Comics

3. In 1939, which DC Comics character made his first appearance in Detective Comics #27?

- A) Batman
- B) The Flash
- C) Green Lantern
- D) Aquaman

4. During the 1950s, a set of rules called the Comics Code Authority was created to regulate the content of comic books. What was the main reason for its creation?

- A) To increase comic prices
- B) To encourage more sales
- C) To address concerns about graphic content
- D) To change the size of the pages

5. Which writer and editor is famous for co-creating iconic Marvel characters such as the Fantastic Four, The X-Men, and The Avengers?

- A) Jack Kirby
- B) Stan Lee
- C) Jerry Siegel
- D) Bob Kane

6. The 'Silver Age' of comic books is generally considered to have begun in 1956 with the introduction of a new version of which character?

- A) The Flash
- B) Superman
- C) Hulk
- D) Iron Man

7. Before modern comic books, what were the early illustrated collections of newspaper strips called?

- A) Graphic Novels
- B) Funnies
- C) Platinum Age books
- D) Comics Magazines

8. Which company is known for introducing the 'Justice League of America' in 1960, bringing together many of their most popular heroes?

- A) Marvel
- B) DC Comics
- C) Dell Comics
- D) Fawcett Comics