

Introduction to Philosophy

Philosophy · Practice Test · 10 Questions

1. What does the Greek word "philosophy" literally mean?

- A) Love of wisdom
- B) Fear of nature
- C) Study of numbers
- D) Writing about history

2. Which ancient Greek philosopher was the teacher of Plato?

- A) Aristotle
- B) Socrates
- C) Pythagoras
- D) Homer

3. What branch of philosophy studies right and wrong human behavior?

- A) Logic
- B) Ethics
- C) Aesthetics
- D) Geology

4. Which famous ancient philosopher wrote "The Republic" and described the Allegory of the Cave?

- A) Plato
- B) Confucius
- C) Descartes
- D) Cicero

5. Which ancient Greek philosopher was the personal tutor of Alexander the Great?

- A) Socrates
- B) Aristotle
- C) Laozi
- D) Epicurus

6. What branch of philosophy is dedicated to studying art, beauty, and taste?

- A) Aesthetics
- B) Ethics
- C) Logic
- D) Biology

7. What is the Socratic method?

- A) Asking and answering questions to encourage deep thinking
- B) Writing long poems about natural science
- C) Solving math problems using geometric shapes
- D) Memorizing rules without asking questions

8. Which ancient Chinese philosopher was famous for teachings on respect, duty, and ethics?

- A) Confucius
- B) Socrates
- C) Plato
- D) Kant

9. Which branch of philosophy studies the principles of correct reasoning and sound arguments?

- A) Ethics
- B) Logic
- C) Aesthetics
- D) Anatomy

10. What is the term for a mistake or flaw in reasoning that makes an argument unsound?

- A) Fact
- B) Fallacy
- C) Theory
- D) Hypothesis