

Introduction to Film Studies

Film Studies · Answer Key · 12 Questions

1. What is the term for the person who is in charge of the creative vision of a film?

- A) Gaffer
- B) Director
- C) Producer
- D) Editor

2. Which of these is a camera shot where the camera remains stationary while pivoting horizontally?

- A) Pan
- B) Zoom
- C) Tilt
- D) Dolly

3. In film production, what is the 'script' primarily used for?

- A) Marketing the movie
- B) Recording the soundtrack
- C) Outlining dialogue and action
- D) Designing the costumes

4. What is the primary role of a 'Cinematographer' on a film set?

- A) Writing the screenplay
- B) Acting in the film
- C) Managing the budget
- D) Capturing the film's images and lighting

5. Which term describes the process of selecting and assembling video shots into a coherent sequence?

- A) Editing
- B) Directing
- C) Casting
- D) Storyboarding

6. What is a 'close-up' shot typically used to emphasize?

- A) The entire setting
- B) The actor's facial expressions
- C) The background details
- D) The wide landscape

7. Which department is responsible for the clothes actors wear during filming?

- A) Sound department
- B) Art department
- C) Costume design
- D) Special effects

8. What is the 'foley' artist responsible for creating?

- A) Dialogue recordings
- B) Sound effects for everyday movements
- C) The film score music
- D) The film's color palette

9. What does the 'mise-en-scène' refer to in film studies?

- A) The budget of the film
- B) The arrangement of everything visible in the frame
- C) The marketing campaign
- D) The number of cameras used

10. Which of these is a type of 'cut' where one shot fades into the next?

- A) Jump cut
- B) Match cut
- C) Dissolve
- D) Wipe

11. What is a 'storyboard' used for during the pre-production stage?

- A) Visualizing scenes with a series of drawings
- B) Hiring the actors
- C) Designing the movie poster
- D) Creating the final soundtrack

12. Which term refers to the music composed specifically for a movie?

- A) Soundtrack
- B) Diegetic sound
- C) Score
- D) Ambient noise