

Introduction to Parapsychology

Parapsychology · Answer Key · 10 Questions

1. What term is used to describe the study of phenomena that appear to fall outside the range of known physical laws?

A) Parapsychology

- B) Astrology
- C) Alchemy
- D) Cryptozoology

2. Which famous scientist and inventor was known for conducting experiments on telepathy at the Duke University Parapsychology Laboratory?

A) Thomas Edison

B) J.B. Rhine

- C) Nikola Tesla
- D) Alexander Graham Bell

3. What is the common acronym used in parapsychology to refer to 'Extra-Sensory Perception'?

A) ESP

- B) PSI
- C) EVP
- D) PK

4. In parapsychology, what does the term 'Psychokinesis' refer to?

A) Reading minds

B) Moving objects with the mind

- C) Seeing the future
- D) Communicating with animals

5. What is the term for the alleged ability to perceive information about events or objects through means other than the known human senses?

A) Clairvoyance

- B) Telepathy
- C) Precognition
- D) Remote viewing

6. The Society for Psychical Research (SPR) was founded in which country in 1882?

A) United States

B) United Kingdom

- C) France
- D) Germany

7. What is the definition of 'Precognition' in the context of parapsychological research?

- A) Knowledge of the past
- B) Knowledge of the present
- C) Knowledge of a future event
- D) Knowledge of hidden objects

8. Which term is often used to describe the hypothetical 'force' or 'power' that researchers like J.B. Rhine believed allowed for phenomena like telepathy?

- A) Gravity
- B) Psi
- C) Dark matter
- D) Magnetism

9. What does the acronym 'EVP' stand for in the context of paranormal investigations?

- A) Electronic Voice Phenomenon
- B) Extra Vision Perception
- C) External Vibe Power
- D) Energy Velocity Point

10. Which term describes the alleged ability to mentally communicate thoughts from one person to another?

- A) Telepathy
- B) Mediumship
- C) Apparition
- D) Dowsing