

Classical and World Mythology

Mythology · Practice Test · 10 Questions

1. In Greek mythology, which deity is credited with being the goddess of wisdom, handicraft, and strategic warfare?

- A) Aphrodite
- B) Athena
- C) Artemis
- D) Hera

2. Which Norse god is known as the father of all and possesses a single eye, having sacrificed the other for wisdom?

- A) Thor
- B) Loki
- C) Odin
- D) Tyr

3. In Egyptian mythology, which god is primarily associated with the afterlife, resurrection, and the judgment of the deceased?

- A) Osiris
- B) Ra
- C) Anubis
- D) Horus

4. Which Mesopotamian hero is the protagonist of one of the world's oldest surviving literary works, written on clay tablets?

- A) Hammurabi
- B) Gilgamesh
- C) Sargon
- D) Enkidu

5. In Hindu mythology, which deity is widely revered as the 'Remover of Obstacles' and is depicted with the head of an elephant?

- A) Vishnu
- B) Shiva
- C) Brahma
- D) Ganesha

6. According to Greek mythology, who was the Titan forced to hold up the celestial heavens on his shoulders for eternity?

- A) Prometheus
- B) Cronus
- C) Atlas
- D) Hyperion

7. In Japanese mythology, which goddess of the sun is considered the ancestral deity of the Imperial House of Japan?

- A) Izanami
- B) Amaterasu
- C) Kannon
- D) Benzaiten

8. What is the name of the world tree in Norse cosmology that connects the nine worlds?

- A) Yggdrasil
- B) Bifrost
- C) Midgard
- D) Valhalla

9. Which Mayan deity, often depicted as a feathered serpent, was associated with the wind and learning?

- A) Chaac
- B) Itzamna
- C) Kukulcan
- D) Ah Puch

10. In Roman mythology, which god is the equivalent of the Greek god Poseidon, presiding over the seas and earthquakes?

- A) Jupiter
- B) Mars
- C) Vulcan
- D) Neptune