

Diplomacy and International Relations

Social Studies · Practice Test · 5 Questions

1. What is an ambassador?

- A) An official representative of one country sent to represent it in another country
- B) An elected mayor of a major international city
- C) A military general who commands joint international armed forces
- D) A judge appointed to serve on an international criminal court

2. Where is the official headquarters of the United Nations located?

- A) Geneva, Switzerland
- B) London, United Kingdom
- C) New York City, United States
- D) Paris, France

3. What term describes a formal, legally binding written agreement between sovereign nations?

- A) Decree
- B) Treaty
- C) Resolution
- D) Manifesto

4. What is the main purpose of diplomatic immunity?

- A) To give diplomats free public transportation in host nations
- B) To ensure diplomats can fulfill their duties without fear of harassment or coercion by host governments
- C) To allow foreign diplomats to collect local taxes
- D) To permit diplomats to break local criminal laws without any consequences

5. Which global organization was established in 1945 after World War II to maintain international peace and security?

- A) League of Nations
- B) European Union
- C) United Nations
- D) World Trade Organization