

History of Massalia and its Defenses

History · Answer Key · 29 Questions

1. How did the Massaliones manage to expand their territory?

- A) Through diplomacy and trade
- B) By employing their military forces to found defensive places
- C) By conquering neighboring cities
- D) Through alliances with other Greek cities

2. What was the purpose of the strongholds founded by the Massaliones?

- A) To serve as trading posts
- B) To act as boulevards against barbarians
- C) To house religious temples
- D) To conduct agricultural activities

3. Which barbarian tribes were the Massaliones defending against with their northern strongholds?

- A) Ibères and Salyens
- B) Rhône barbarians and Ligyens
- C) Salyens and Ligyens
- D) Ibères and Rhône barbarians

4. What is mentioned about the relationship between the Massaliones and the Ibères?

- A) They were constant enemies
- B) The Massaliones conquered them
- C) They shared their national cult rites
- D) They traded extensively

5. Which specific strongholds are mentioned as defending against barbarians from the Rhône?

- A) Tauroentium and Olbia
- B) Rhodanusia and Agathé
- C) Antipolis and Nicaea
- D) Aquae-Sextiae and Massalia

6. What defensive cities are listed as protecting against the Salyens and Ligyens from the Alps?

- A) Rhodanusia and Agathé
- B) Tauroentium, Olbia, Antipolis, and Nicaea
- C) Ibèria and the Rhône border
- D) Aquae-Sextiae and the Italian frontier

7. What military infrastructure does Massalia still possess?

- A) A large fleet and many siege engines
- B) Cales (shelters) for vessels and an arsenal
- C) Numerous fortifications and watchtowers
- D) A well-trained standing army

8. What has diminished in Massalia's capabilities compared to the past?

- A) Their diplomatic relations
- B) Their territorial control
- C) Their large number of ships and war machines
- D) Their agricultural output

9. What benefit did Massalia's military capabilities provide them with regarding the Romans?

- A) They were able to conquer Roman territories
- B) They gained the friendship of the Romans by rendering them services
- C) They established a trade monopoly with Rome
- D) They were granted Roman citizenship

10. Who founded the city of Aquae-Sextiae?

- A) A Roman general named Sextius
- B) The Massaliotes themselves
- C) A barbarian chieftain
- D) The Greeks from Ephesus

11. Why was Aquae-Sextiae named in honor of its founder?

- A) Because he was a Massaliote nobleman
- B) Because he was a Roman general named Sextius
- C) Because he was a celebrated Greek philosopher
- D) Because he was a local tribal leader

12. What was the state of the thermal springs in Aquae-Sextiae according to the text?

- A) They were very active and famous
- B) They were cold and unusable
- C) They were being newly discovered
- D) They were used for military training

13. What task did Sextius undertake with the garrison of Aquae-Sextiae?

- A) To build new defensive walls
- B) To clear the road from Italy to Massalia
- C) To establish a new port
- D) To train the Massaliote army

14. What was the extent of Sextius's success in clearing the coastal route?

- A) He completely expelled the barbarians
- B) He achieved limited success, defining distances for barbarians from the coast
- C) He failed entirely and retreated
- D) He established a Roman military presence on the coast

15. What did the Massalites achieve in terms of naval victories?

- A) They were defeated by all their enemies
- B) They achieved numerous naval victories against various enemies
- C) They focused solely on land battles
- D) They relied entirely on Roman naval support

16. What is still visible in Massalia that commemorates past victories?

- A) Statues of famous generals
- B) Numerous trophies and spoils
- C) A grand amphitheater
- D) Written historical accounts

17. What does the presence of a temple to Artemis on the Aventine hill signify?

- A) Roman dominance over Massalia
- B) The historical prosperity of Massalia and its alliance with Rome
- C) The decline of Massalian influence
- D) A cultural exchange between Massalia and other Greek cities

18. What was a significant aspect of Massalia's past prosperity?

- A) Their extensive land ownership
- B) Their strong military and naval power
- C) Their unique artistic achievements
- D) Their isolation from other civilizations

19. What did the text imply about Massalia's relationship with Rome in the past?

- A) They were rivals for Mediterranean dominance
- B) They were allies who supported each other
- C) Rome was a vassal state of Massalia
- D) Massalia was a Roman colony

20. What does the text suggest about the current state of Massalia's naval power?

- A) It has increased significantly
- B) It is still formidable
- C) It has declined from its past strength
- D) It is comparable to its ancient peak

21. What were the Massaliotes renowned for in addition to their defenses?

- A) Their agricultural innovations
- B) Their philosophical schools
- C) Their naval equipment and siege machines
- D) Their advancements in architecture

22. What was the primary reason for Massalia's strong relationship with Rome?

- A) Shared religious beliefs
- B) Mutual military and strategic support
- C) Economic dependency
- D) Geographical proximity

23. Which region's barbarians were a particular concern for Massalia's northern defenses?

- A) The Rhone delta
- B) The Italian Alps
- C) Iberia
- D) The Eastern Mediterranean

24. What does the presence of trophies in Massalia indicate?

- A) Their defeat in many battles
- B) Their rich artistic heritage
- C) Their history of military success
- D) Their focus on religious festivals

25. What was one of the key contributions Massalia made to the Romans?

- A) Providing military legions
- B) Offering financial aid
- C) Rendering many services
- D) Sharing advanced farming techniques

26. What does the text suggest about the historical military significance of Massalia?

- A) It was a minor player in regional conflicts
- B) It was a formidable power that defended itself and aided allies
- C) It was primarily a trading hub with no military focus
- D) It was consistently under foreign occupation

27. What was the strategic importance of the strongholds like Rhodanusia and Agathé?

- A) To control inland trade routes
- B) To defend against incursions from the Rhône river
- C) To serve as centers for religious worship
- D) To facilitate communication with Rome

28. What does the text imply about the evolution of the thermal springs in Aquae-Sextiae?

- A) They became more potent over time
- B) They were completely dried up
- C) They experienced a decline in their quality or output
- D) They were artificially enhanced

29. Who were the Salyens and Ligyens in the context of Massalia's defenses?

- A) Allies from Italy
- B) Barbarian tribes from the Alps
- C) Naval forces from Greece
- D) Merchants from North Africa