Global Geography and Computing Essentials

Computer Skills And Geography · Answer Key · 12 Questions

1. Which city in the United States, often associated with the tech hub 'Silicon Valley,' is located in the state of California?

A) San Jose
B) Seattle
C) Austin
D) Denver

2. The first trans-Pacific submarine cable, which laid the infrastructure for modern internet connectivity, connects the US to which island nation?

A) Japan
B) New Zealand
C) Fiji
D) Indonesia

3. In which European country is the CERN laboratory located, where Tim Berners-Lee invented the World Wide Web?

A) Switzerland
B) Germany
C) France
D) Austria

4. The 'Great Firewall' is a legislative and technological project regulating the internet in which country?

A) China
B) Russia
C) North Korea
D) Vietnam

5. Which South American country is home to the Atacama Desert, a region that hosts some of the world's most advanced astronomical supercomputing facilities?

A) Chile
B) Argentina
C) Peru
D) Bolivia

Quixly | This material was auto-generated. Quixly is not liable for errors or omissions. Visit quixlylearn.com to report corrections.

6. The 'Digital Nomad' visa, which allows remote workers to live and work abroad, was famously pioneered in 2020 by which small island nation in the Atlantic?

A) Barbados
B) Malta
C) Iceland
D) Cyprus

7. Which Nordic country consistently ranks at the top of the Global Connectivity Index for its high-speed fiber-optic internet infrastructure?

A) Sweden
B) Denmark
C) Norway
D) Finland

8. The 'Mother of All Demos,' where Douglas Engelbart first demonstrated the computer mouse in 1968, took place in which city?

A) San Francisco
B) New York
C) Boston
D) Chicago

9. Which Southeast Asian nation is known as a major global hub for the manufacturing of computer microchips and semiconductors?

A) Malaysia
B) Thailand
C) Philippines
D) Vietnam

10. Which major African city hosts the regional headquarters for many global tech giants seeking to expand into the 'Silicon Savannah'?

A) Nairobi
B) Lagos
C) Cairo
D) Johannesburg

11. The first operational programmable computer, the Z3, was completed in 1941 in which European capital city?

A) Berlin
B) London
C) Paris
D) Rome

Quixly | This material was auto-generated. Quixly is not liable for errors or omissions. Visit quixlylearn.com to report corrections.

12. Which Australian city is home to the 'National Computational Infrastructure' (NCI), a leading high-performance computing facility?

A) Canberra

B) Sydney

C) Melbourne

D) Perth